Management authorized a liberal leave policy due to a hazardous weather situation on Friday morning, January 17, 2003. Under this policy, normal business hours are observed; however, individual employees are permitted to use leave or credit hours, without prior approval, to cover all or part of their absence caused by the hazardous weather situation. Supervisors may excuse up to 2 hours of tardiness under this policy. Employees receiving excused tardiness should be charged with Administrative Leave Due to Weather (Code 061). Tardiness in excess of 2 hours should be charged to an appropriate leave category. Employees who were scheduled to work on this date but did not report for duty at all should be charged with an appropriate leave category for the entire day.

Those who reported at 10 a.m. should be charged with Administrative Leave Due to Weather (Code 061) until 10 a.m. Under the liberal leave policy, supervisors had the discretion to authorize a maximum of 2 hours of excused absence beyond the 10 a.m. opening time. Employees who reported between 10 a.m. and noon should have their absence for this period charged to Code 061. Those who reported for duty after noon on this date should be charged with an appropriate leave category between noon and the time of arrival. Those who did not report for duty at all should be charged with Code 061 until 10 a.m. and with an appropriate leave category thereafter.
